How to get to “Ham Radio” at Messe-Friedrichshafen from Zurich airport.

Once you have passed through passport control and collected your bags, head for the Exit (the signs include English)

At the exit, follow the signs for Train.

You will cross the road into the Airport Center, which contains the train station, as well as a number of shops and other facilities.

Follow the sign for Train, which will take you down an escalator to the train station.

Find the Rail Tickets machine.

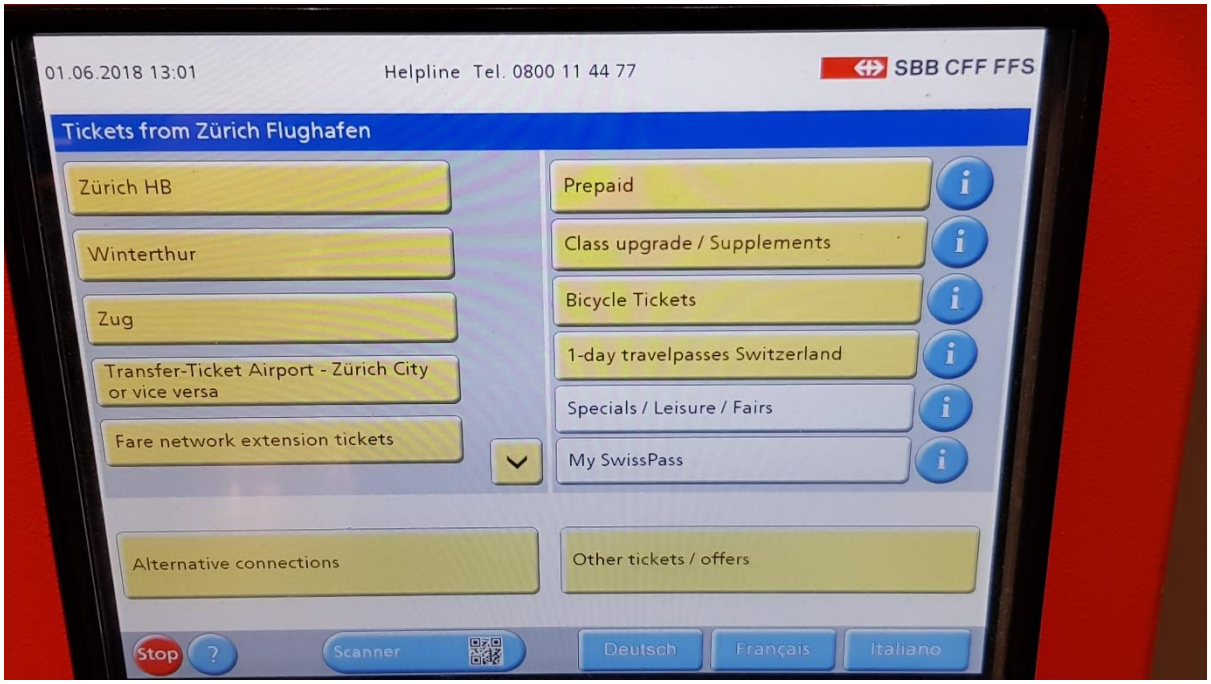
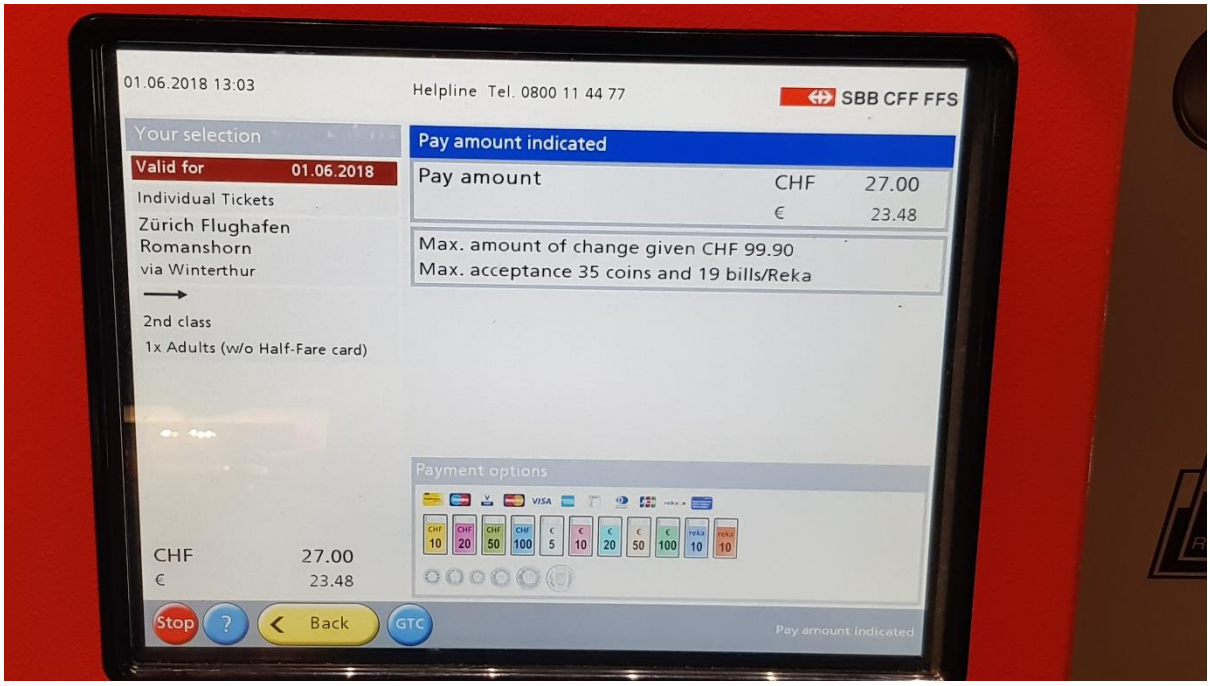
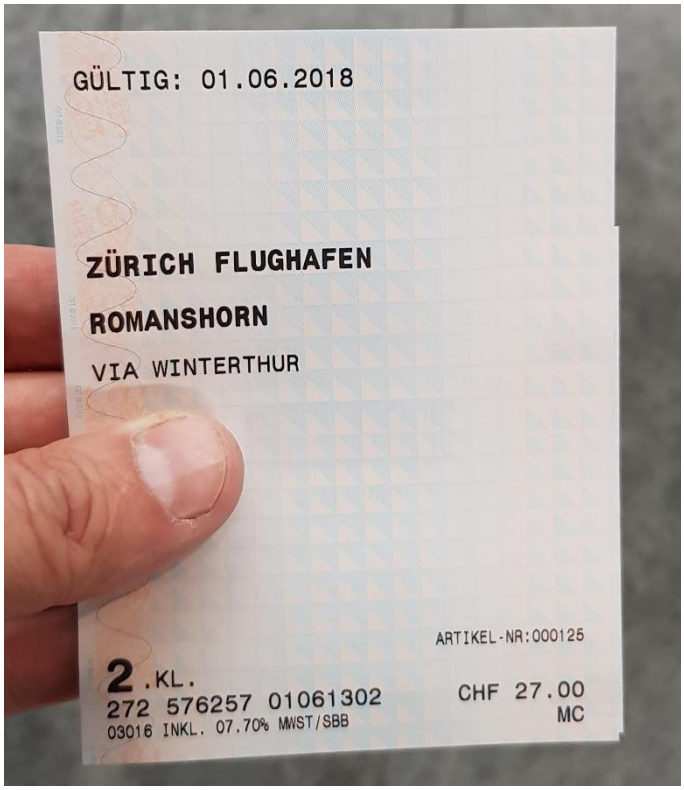
You can select the English language by touching on Welcome.

You need a ticket to Romanshorn, so use the arrow button to find that destination.



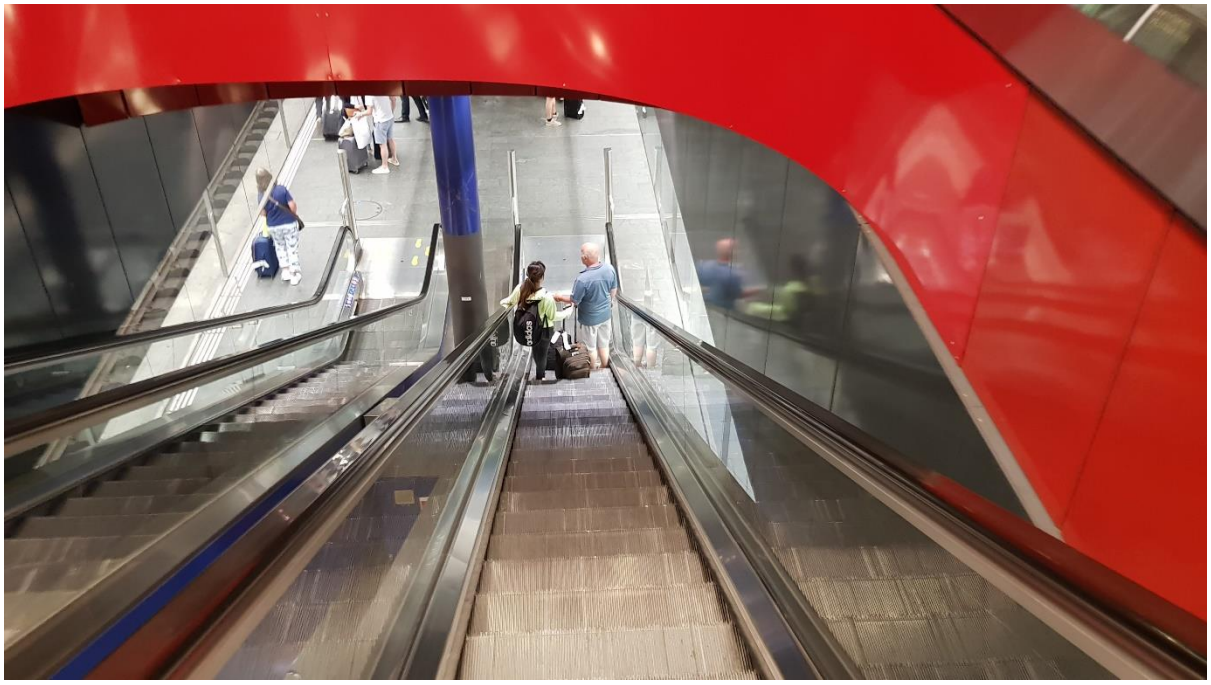
Follow the on-screen instructions. You can pay for your ticket, in Swiss Francs, by Credit card.





Check the electronic signage to see which platform the next train to Romanshorn will arrive at.

Head down the escalator to that platform and wait for the train.



Romanshorn is the last station on the line and the journey takes just under an hour on a double decker train.

When you arrive at Romanshorn, follow the signs for the Friedrichshafen Ferry, which involves taking the underpass.

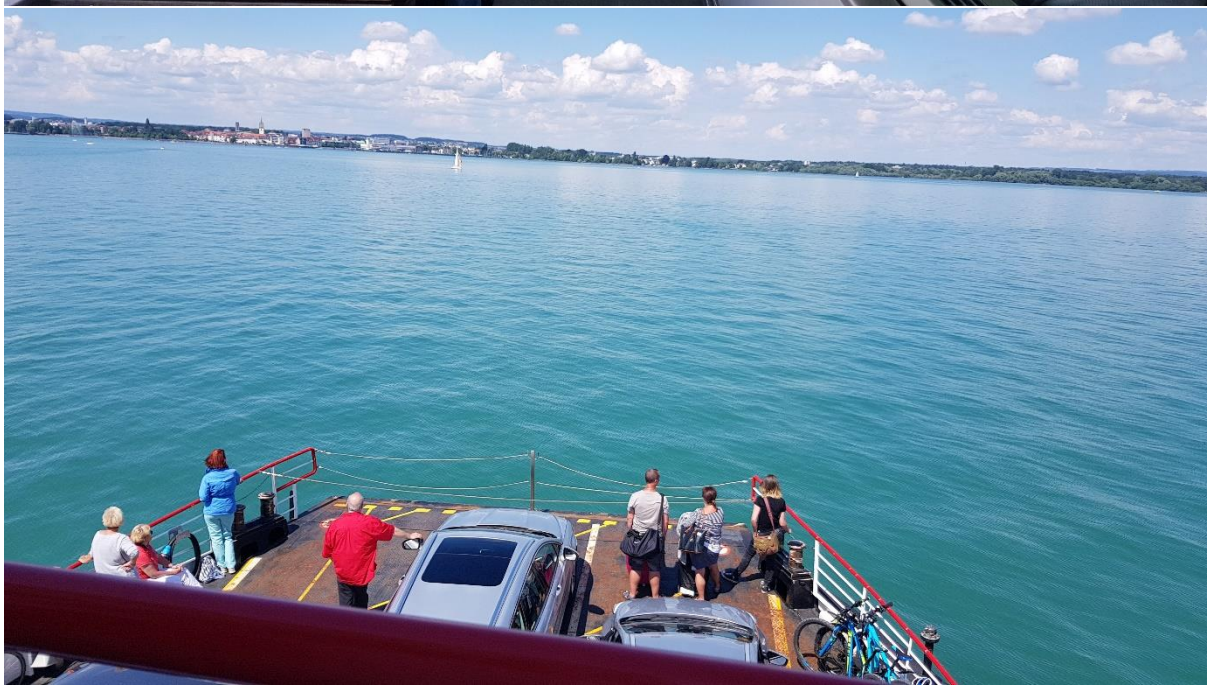
You will see the Bodensee office, where you can buy your ticket for the Ferry.

Enjoy the views of Lake Constance on your crossing



When you arrive at the other side of the lake, you will see signs for the Messe-Express, which is a free* shuttle bus which takes you directly to the Ham Radio event.

*was free for the 2018 event, but worth checking before you travel.

Catch the bus, and you will be taken straight to the event.
